

Moving in and need help moving your things?

At Opal, we know that moving can sometimes be stressful. That's why we'd like to introduce you to Allied Pickfords and Kent Removals & Storage - two of Australia's largest moving companies - to help make your move day as smooth as possible.

Benefits:

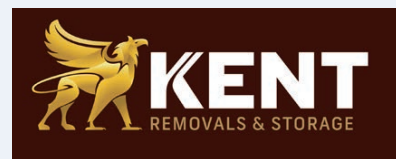

- A single contact person briefed by Opal about the general needs of our residents.
- A move company that understands the space considerations within the care home.
- Options to transport belongings to multiple destinations including to family members or to storage.
- A liaison within your care home to help coordinate your arrival time in the home.

If you choose to move with either company:

- You will need to contact and engage the move company yourself and pay the company directly for services.
- You should consider the fees quoted by the company and compare these with other providers.
- Please direct any questions about your move to the company directly.
