The 5-step guide

Everything you need to know about moving into residential aged care

You're not alone

The decision to move into residential aged care can be a difficult and agonising one. For some older people and their families, the process can trigger all kinds of emotions – fear, anxiety, guilt, loss or even relief – sometimes all at once.

That's why we've created this small booklet with you in mind. It's intended to be a simple step-by-step guide to help you navigate your pathway into care and help you choose a Care Community that meets your personal needs, whatever they may be.

The first reassuring piece of information you should know is that residential aged care in Australia is strictly regulated by the Australian Government to ensure a high standard of care across the sector.

So, while you may find that accommodation styles and standards differ, you should always receive quality care, no matter where you go. We suggest that you keep this booklet with you as you move through all the steps into care, to ensure that you have the information you need along the way.

There are 5 basic steps you need to take to successfully transition into residential aged care with us.

Step 1

Assess whether you're eligible for government support.

Step 2

Find a Care Community that suits your personal tastes and needs.

Step 3

Work out the costs of care to understand the fees and charges involved.

Step 4

Apply to a Care Community.

Step 5

Move into your new Care Community.

Step 1

Assess whether you're eligible for government support.

What is an ACAT/NSAF assessment?

The first step you need to take is to find out if you're eligible for government support. To do this, you'll need to be assessed by an Aged Care Assessment Team or ACAT (known as Aged Care Assessment Services or ACAS in Victoria).

Aged Care Assessment Teams are health professionals such as doctors, nurses and social workers who provide information and advice to older people who are having difficulty living at home. The assessment helps establish which services and care you're eligible to access.

You can contact ACAT directly by calling 1800 200 422 or via the government's My Aged Care website at myagedcare.gov.au or you can simply speak to your local doctor or health centre to provide a referral to your nearest ACAT.

What to expect from an ACAT assessment?

A member of ACAT will visit you at home to understand more about how you're managing with day-to-day activities such as bathing, shopping, cooking and cleaning.

With your permission, your doctor may tell the ACAT representative about your medical history to help determine which kind of care would be most beneficial for you. You may like to have a member of your family or a carer present during the visit.

Once the ACAT has completed your assessment, they will let you know whether or not you're eligible to access government support for your residential aged care. They will either give you a copy of the assessment report or they may choose to post it to you. Your ACAT assessment is free and will be valid indefinitely unless it's granted for a specific period of time.

Types of care for which you may be eligible to receive support

Permanent care

Permanent care can range from assistance with personal care or day-to-day tasks through to 24-hour nursing care for those with complex or high care needs.

Dementia care

Dementia care typically involves a higher level of care delivered in an environment designed specifically to meet the needs of people living with dementia.

Respite care

Respite care is short-term care, including day respite, to provide your caregivers a break from caring when they need it. It can be planned or on an emergency basis and can be used for up to 63 days in a financial year. Many Care Communities offer day respite, which offers caregivers some flexibility to attend to personal needs and obligations as they arise.

Palliative care

Palliative care is specialised care for people who have an advanced illness or who are in the final stages of life. The aim of palliative care is to provide the best possible end-of-life care for the person and also for their family.

Step 2

Find a Care Community that suits your personal tastes and needs.

If your ACAT has confirmed your eligibility to access residential aged care, the next step is finding a Care Community that meets your needs.

This is often the most stressful part for families, however, with many Care Communities in most states across Australia, it's very likely there's an Opal HealthCare Care Community in your area. Just call us on 1300 362 481 and our experienced team will talk to you about your needs and what we have available in your area. If we're unable to accommodate you, we'll do our best to help you locate an alternative provider.

Applying to a Care Community

Once you've received your ACAT assessment, you can begin applying to as many Care Communities as you wish, but once you accept a place, it's important that you let the other Care Community know that you no longer require their services.

Visiting a Care Community

Visiting a range of Care Communities is one of the best ways to decide which Care Community suits your needs. To help you assess the suitability of the Care Community you visit, we've attached a short checklist at the end of this section. This will help you assess each Care Community and ask some important questions to the providers you meet with.

If you're considering an Opal HealthCare Care Community, here are some of the services we provide

- A range of care options including respite, dementia-support, permanent care and palliative care. Many Care Communities also offer day respite.
- High quality person-centred care with a focus on meeting your individual needs.
- A qualified nursing team on-site at all times to attend to your clinical and emergency needs.
- Fresh meals prepared and cooked in the Care Community kitchen by our dedicated qualified chef.

- Access to a range of other health services including physiotherapy, podiatry, optometry and dental.
- Medication management provided on-site.

Step 3

Work out the costs of care to understand the fees and charges involved.

For peace of mind, it's critical that you fully understand the costs of residential aged care as well as any fees and charges you may incur along the way.

It's also important to understand that the overall amount you pay for aged care and accommodation is determined by the government (Services Australia). Services Australia reviews your personal and financial situation and makes a determination about how much you need to contribute to the cost of your own care. If your financial situation changes after you have already entered aged care, the amount you are required to contribute to your own care may also change.

Since Services Australia can sometimes take a long time to send you the outcome of your income and assets assessment (14-120 days), we recommend using the government's Fee Estimator to help you estimate the likely cost of care. The Fee Estimator can be found on the myagedcare.gov.au website or Opal HealthCare website opalhealthcare.com.au.

The accuracy of the Fee Estimator depends on the accuracy of the information you enter, so it's important to be as precise as possible. We also encourage any person considering residential aged care to seek independent financial advice. This will help you access any government assistance to which you're entitled and advise you on the likely costs of your care. If you need help finding an independent advisor, please speak to our team at your Local Care Community or you can contact Services Australia for a referral.

How are my assets and my income assessed?

The Combined Income and Assets Assessment form (SA457 or SA485) is an extensive questionnaire with over 140 questions about what you and your partner/spouse own and earn. It's important to understand that you're considered to own half your assets with your partner/spouse regardless of who holds the title to the assets. As part of your assessment, you'll be asked to provide details of all assets owned by both of you.

The family home is excluded from the asset assessment if:

- You have a spouse, partner or dependent child still living in the family home at the time of the assessment or at the time you enter into care (whichever date is earlier).
- A close family member has lived in the family home for at least 5 years and is eligible for an income support payment (such as a government pension or allowance).
- A carer has lived in the family home for at least 2 years and is eligible for an income support payment (such as a government pension or allowance).

For more information on the assessment process, call Services Australia on 1800 227 475.

What are the fees and charges included in residential aged care?

Accommodation charge

The cost of your room is set by individual Care Communities and varies between them.

Basic daily care fee

Meals, laundry, cleaning and other day-to-day costs set by the Australian Government and is the same across every Care Community in Australia.

Means-tested care fee

To supplement the cost of your overall care set by the Australian Government based on an assessment of your personal financial situation.

Additional Services fee or Extra Services fee

Higher-end services and accommodation is set by individual Care Communities and varies between them. In some, Additional Services or Extra Services are optional and in others, residents are required to purchase these services as a condition of entry.

Now let's look at each of these one by one:

Accommodation

The price of a room is determined by the Care Community and will depend on the standard of the Care Community and the type of room available. For example, a private room with an ensuite will be more expensive than a companion room with a shared bathroom. Any room price over $550,000 is approved by the Aged Care Pricing Commissioner.

The amount that a resident can be asked to pay for accommodation is based on their Combined Income and Assets Assessment.

Once your Combined Income and Assets Assessment is complete, Services Australia will advise you what fees and charges a residential aged care provider can ask you to pay.

Your assessment will place you in one of the following categories:

Supported: the government will pay for your accommodation.

Partially supported: the government will contribute to some of your accommodation costs and you will be asked to pay the balance.

Financial or self-funded: you will be required to pay your full accommodation costs.

If you're required to pay for your accommodation, you can pay for your accommodation in three ways:

1. Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD):

A lump sum amount that is completely refundable to you when you leave the Care Community for any reason. Those who are partially supported by the government have the option to pay a refundable accommodation contribution (RAC). The refundable amount is 100% government guaranteed.

2. Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP):

A rental style equivalent, which is a daily interest payment on the full room price. The maximum permissible interest rate is set by the government. Those who are partially supported by the government will be asked to pay a daily accommodation contribution (DAC). Since this is a monthly interest-only payment, it isn't refundable in any part.

3. Combination of both (RAD/DAP) or (RAC/DAC): A combination of the two types of payment above whereby you can pay a partial lump sum amount and the remainder as a daily accommodation interest payment. Only the partial lump sum payment is refundable when you leave the Care Community. You have 28 days from the day you move into a Care Community to decide which payment method best suits your financial situation. The rental style (DAP) must be paid until you decide on your preferred method of payment. More information about payments for accommodation is available on the My Aged Care website.

Basic daily care fee

The basic daily care fee covers your day-to-day living costs in residential aged care such as meals, cleaning and laundry, heating and cooling. It's the same for every resident in every home across Australia regardless of your financial situation.

The basic daily care fee is set by the Federal Government and is calculated as 85% of the single person rate of the basic age pension. It's indexed with the age pension (it increases when the aged pension increases) and is adjusted every March and September.

Please check myagedcare.gov.au/aged-care-home-costs-and-fees for the most current fee.

Means-tested care fee

If you're required to pay a means-tested care fee, this will be clearly stated on the determination letter you receive from Services Australia after completing your Combined Income and Assets Assessment. This fee applies to residents who are assessed to have sufficient means to contribute to their overall residential aged care costs, including nursing and personal care.

The means-tested care fee is capped at a maximum amount per year and also has a lifetime limit. The current maximum amount that can be charged is available on the My Aged Care website. Please keep in mind that you may only find out that you are eligible to pay a means-tested care fee after you've already moved into care. To avoid any unexpected fees, we recommend that you seek independent financial advice before you move into care and/or use the government's My Aged Care Fee Estimator, which can be found at myagedcare.gov.au or on our Opal website at opalhealthcare.com.au. The accuracy of the estimated MTF generated by the Fee Estimator depends on the accuracy of the information you enter.

Additional Services and Extra Services

Additional Services

Many Care Communities offer Additional Services, which enhance daily living and social experiences such as an extended variety of meal and lifestyle options. The cost of these services is determined by each Care Community and can vary within a particular Care Community.

Extra Services

Some Care Communities have services that are attached to a specific bed as part of an agreement with the government. Residents who choose an Extra Services bed are required to pay the Extra Services fee. This fee is determined by each Care Community in consultation with the government and can vary within a particular Care Community.

Questions and answers about costs and fees

Will my fees change?

Your fees may change if your financial circumstances change. Services Australia informs your aged care provider when your fees have been adjusted as a result of a change in your financial situation. Your aged care provider will make the adjustments to your fees and also notify you of the changes.

When do I have to pay my RAD or RAC?

You have up to six months to pay the RAD or RAC. You'll be charged the Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP) or Contribution (DAC), which is the government-set interest rate on the full price of the accommodation until the refundable deposit or contribution is received.

What happens to my Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD) if I leave my aged care home?

Your RAD is refundable to you under the following circumstances:

- If you give at least 14 days written notice of leaving the Care Community, your RAD will be repaid within that period.
- If you notify your provider in writing more than 14 days before you leave, your RAD will be refunded on the day you leave.

- If you give no written notice of your departure, your RAD must be repaid within 14 days after your leave date.
- In case of death, the RAD must be refunded 14 days after the provider is presented with probate or letters of administration.

What happens to my RAD if my care needs change?

If your care needs change and the Care Community requires you to move to a different bed within the same Care Community, your fees will not change. If you request to move rooms for any other reason, you may either be asked to pay the increase or be given a refund depending on whether the new bed is more expensive or less expensive than your current arrangement.

What if I can't afford my aged care home payments?

The Australian Government has measures in place to help residents who are experiencing difficulty in paying for their care. If you find yourself in need of help, please call the My Aged Care Information Line on 1800 200 422 for more information.

Checklist

- ☐ Do you understand the costs and resident agreements associated with moving into care?
- ☐ How does the Care Community charge for the room you are interested in?
- ☐ Can you see a copy of their latest Prudential Compliance Statement showing that they've met their obligations to repay lump sum accommodation balances?
- ☐ Are the fees reasonable and what do they cover?
- ☐ If the Care Community has Additional Services and/or Extra Services, are these services and offerings that you value and can afford?
- ☐ Which services are considered 'standard' and which are considered 'additional'?

Step 4

Apply to one of our Care Communities.

At Opal HealthCare, we recognise that applying to residential aged care can be a daunting step, which is why we have tried to make our application process as simple and straightforward as possible.

Here are some basic steps when applying to one of our Care Communities and a checklist to help you along the way:

- Find our Application Form on page 27 of this guide.
- Complete the application form and return to the administrative officer in your preferred Care Community.

- If you have appointed a Power of Attorney and they have signed the application form, please provide a copy of the Power of Attorney authorising document along with the application form.
- If you have been assessed by an ACAT or ACAS, please provide a copy of your report or the referrer code. If you don't have a copy, please let us know so we can help you obtain a copy.
- If you have already completed your Combined Income and Assets Assessment, please provide a copy of the determination letter that you received from Services Australia or Department of Veteran's Affairs (DVA).

If you have any questions or aren't sure what information is required or where to get it, please call the Care Community to which you are applying, or you can call our general enquiry line on 1300 362 481 and a team member will assist you.

Step 5

Move into your new Care Community.

Moving into aged care can be a stressful time so we will always do our best to help make the transition as smooth as possible.

Here are some of the usual key steps involved in moving into one of our Care Communities.

1. Meet with us before your move-in day

It's preferable to complete as much of the paperwork as possible before your move so that your move-in day can be just about you and helping you settle into your new Care Community. It's also important that you have time to read through all the documents, agreements and forms so that you don't feel rushed in any way.

2. Complete the Resident Agreement

If you're able to come and meet with us before you move in, or alternatively on your move-in day, we'll ask you to complete the Resident Agreement. The Resident Agreement is a legal document that outlines the terms of your residency, your rights and responsibilities and also those of Opal HealthCare as your health care provider. The Resident Agreement also details information relating to your financial obligations. It's important that you take the time to read and fully understand the Resident Agreement, including any schedules that form part of the Residential Agreement before you sign it. The Care Community administrative officer will be able to help you if you're unsure about any of the terms of the Resident Agreement. You may also want to seek independent legal advice.

3. Move in

We'll provide you with many of the furnishings you need including a bed, linen, bedside table, over-bed table, chair and cupboard space, however you may like to bring some of your own things to make it feel like home. In your Welcome Pack, you'll find a copy of our Welcome Home guide, which details everything you need to know about life in your new Care Community. Your Welcome Pack will also include a list of suggested items to bring with you into care as well as other useful information about preparing for your move.

Questions and answers about moving in What if I change my mind after I've signed the Resident Agreement?

You have a 14 day cooling off period during which time you may withdraw from the Resident Agreement by notifying us in writing. You will, however, be required to pay any fees or charges accrued during the time you were in the Care Community. We'll refund any other amounts that you have paid under the Resident Agreement.

Can either Opal HealthCare or I make changes to the Resident Agreement?

Changes can be made to the Resident Agreement but both Opal HealthCare and you need to agree to the changes.

What if I'm unable to sign the Resident Agreement?

If you're unable to sign the agreement, someone who holds a Power of Attorney for you may complete it on your behalf.

What methods of payment does Opal HealthCare accept for Refundable Accommodation Deposits?

The lump sum RAD payment for accommodation is usually made via direct deposit (EFT), direct debit or bank cheque.

What methods of payment does Opal HealthCare accept for monthly fees?

We ask all our residents to complete a direct debit form as this is the easiest, most reliable and trackable way to pay your monthly fees.

What happens if I can't pay my fees on time?

In some cases, new residents may need to or choose to sell an asset, such as a home, in order to pay the fees agreed to in the Resident Agreement. As it can take some time for these larger transactions to be completed, it's important to have an alternative means of paying the fees and charges to which you have agreed. As with all financial matters relating to your aged care, we encourage you to seek independent financial advice to ensure that you're able to cover any fees and charges listed in your Resident Agreement to avoid additional stress.

Do I need a Power of Attorney?

Power of Attorney is a legal document that appoints someone else to act on your behalf in matters of money and property. You can get further advice about preparing a Power of Attorney from a solicitor, a community legal centre, a State or Territory trustee company or your local Magistrate's Court. We strongly encourage all residents to consider appointing a Power of Attorney prior to moving into care so that you have a trusted person in place to make decisions in the event that you're unable to make decisions for yourself.

Do I need an Enduring Guardian?

An Enduring Guardian is a legal document that authorises someone to act on your behalf in making health-related decisions. An Enduring Guardian can only act on your behalf during those periods where you're unable to make decisions for yourself. You should see a solicitor to prepare these authorisations for you so that you have a sense of security in knowing that you've appointed someone you trust to take care of you and your affairs if you no longer have capacity to do so.

What does Guardianship mean?

In the event that you're unable to make decisions about your personal affairs and you don't have a Power of Attorney in place, a Guardian may be appointed by a State or Territory Government to act on your behalf.

Managing your affairs when you move into a Care Community:

Correspondence with Services Australia

After you move into care, there may be some ongoing correspondence with Services Australia about matters such as the means-tested care fee or other changes to your financial status. You may prefer to appoint a nominee or someone who can act on your behalf in dealing with Services Australia. To appoint a nominee, please complete an Appointment of Nominee form, which is available at any of our Care Communities.

Personal preferences in the event of serious illness

You may wish to provide us with information about your personal preferences in the event of serious illness when you move in. You can do this formally via a Living Will or Advance Health Directive, which is a written statement of what health care you wish to have should you no longer be able to take part in decisions about your medical treatment. Please speak to a team member if you would like to communicate these preferences to the team.

Your Will

It's important to have a current Will to ensure that your estate and funeral requirements are executed according to your wishes. It's also a good idea to inform your new Care Community of the details of the Executor of your Will so that this person can be contacted if needed.

Checklist of people to notify of your move

There are a number of people and organisations who may need to know that you've moved into care. Here's a checklist to help you notify them:

- ☐ Family members
- ☐ Friends and neighbours
